

Stefan Kaiser

AIA / Senior Associate

Stefan is a passionate architect with broad interest who enjoys all phases of building development. He facilitates an iterative design process aimed at realizing substantive project goals in their physical, historical, and conceptual contexts. Team-based collaboration is the foundation of his approach to generating innovative solutions to design and construction challenges. In his free time, he enjoys exploring parametric modeling, computational design, and photographing built and natural environments.

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Architecture,
Syracuse University

REGISTRATION

Washington

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

American Institute of Architects (AIA)

AWARDS

2014 Seattle AIA Emerging
Professionals Travel Grant:
"Innovation Hub (+)"

PUBLICATIONS

"Innovation Bubbles: How Tech
Companies Are Reshaping Cities
From Kansas to Kenya"
Arcade 33.1

REPRESENTATIVE PROJECTS

Greenwood Avenue Apartments
Seattle, WA

Twenty 20 MAD Apartments
Seattle, WA

Saxton Mixed-Use Apartments
Seattle, WA

Lexington Apartments
Seattle, WA

Jefferson Park Apartments
Seattle, WA

Bastian Single-Family Residence
Sammamish, WA

1855 Place - Michigan State
University Student Housing
East Lansing, MI

3D Hopscotch Installation
Seattle Design Festival 2013 *

**Completed with previous firm*